A word from CDFNL President
PETER HICKEY

Winter is coming and the action is getting even hotter.

We're about to hit the halfway mark of the season.

We've completed the first eight rounds of the CDFNL. During this time, we've had everything - great results, close games, controversy and big crowds. Clubs have returned with a bang, and it's great to see so many get around our 50 years of netball celebrations, last weekend. I'm looking forward to hearing stories from the clubs who are hosting this weekends celebrations - Alvie, Apollo Bay, Irrewarra-Beeac, Lorne and Western Eagles.

Let's continue to work together, support each other and work our way towards a great second half of the season.

Just for the record, Simpson Football-Netball Club do the best hot jam donuts. If you want take on the challenge - you're most welcome to bring a tray over to the CDFNL Live broadcast trailer.

Enjoy the weekend of sport.

/// Round 13, 2018 - COLAC IMPERIALS v APOLLO BAY

'Dan the man' returns

Almost four years after Colac Imperials great, Dan Casey lost part of his foot in a nasty work accident, he returned to the senior footy field in their clash against Apollo Bay. Dan, who was coaching the Colac Imperials at the time kicked a goal in the second term and played a key role up forward, but unfortunately - despite his efforts, the Cats couldn't cause the upset win. Apollo Bay, who trailed at half-time booted 10 goals to two in the second half, running out 42-point winners.

The Long sleeve TEAM of 2022

Winter is here! Kathmandu jackets, warm beanies and hot soup are out in force, but we have a large group of players who wear the long sleeves, regardless of the conditions. Here's the best of 2022.

Words MAX BLAKE.

As a tradition on the first weekend of winter every year, I select the best 22 who wear the famous long sleeve footy jumpers. The selection criteria is simple - players must wear a long sleeve jumper 95% of their games. I know a couple of players that have a warm weather policy which is fine - one off occasions are okay.

ACTION PACKED JACK

Colac Imperials youngster, Jack Skinner is making his mark at senior level - at only 16 years of age. We spoke to him this week. Words MAX BLAKE.

MAX BLAKE: Thanks for chatting to us today, Jack. Eight games into your senior career at just 16. How do you feel you've gone so far?

JACK SKINNER: Yeah, I'm really enjoying the step up to senior footy. It's definitely a lot harder

“...I think I’m fitting into the team really well.” – JACK SKINNER

then Under-18s, but I think I’m fitting into the team really well. I feel like I’m going ok, but I’ve still got a lot to learn. The team have been really supportive and helping me learn.

MAX: You’re still able to play junior footy. What’s made you commit to playing in the seniors this season?

JACK: I’d say, just being able to play better footy against the bigger bodies and better players. Also, I’ve already learnt so much more, playing at that level.

MAX: What position do you like playing?

JACK: Definitely centre half forward. I love kicking a goal, but last week we changed it up a bit. I played centre half-back and I really enjoyed that too.

MAX: You played in the V/Line Cup earlier in the year. You were named in the best and kicked a couple of goals. How was the experience playing in that game?

JACK: Yeah, that was really fun. I really enjoyed that experience and the footy was definitely a lot harder than local junior footy, and I made heaps of mates along the way.

MAX: Tell us about that big bomb goal you kicked at Birre earlier in the season. How far out were you – 50, or 60 metres? It was a ripper.

JACK: Yeah, I was going to pass it off to a teammate, but a couple of the boys behind me just told me to back myself in and take my time. So, yeah it was something like 50-60 metres. I didn’t take too much notice at the time. ➤

Colac Imperials youngster,
JACK SKINNER

MAX: Is it up there with one of the best goals you've kicked? Or have you kicked a better one?

JACK: Yeah, no definitely it's one of my better goals. It's right up there with the goal I kicked against Alvie. Probably from the same distance and at the same crucial point in the game.

MAX: Is there an AFL or local player(s) that you've moulded your game around?

JACK: Not really, but I've been liking the way that Patrick Cripps (Carlton captain) has been playing this year, so he's definitely someone I look up too.

MAX: What's your pre-game routine. Friday night through to Saturday morning?

JACK: Well, Friday night I try not to think about the game. Saturday morning, I get up, have a smoothie then head to the footy and support the Under-18s team, then put on some music in the ears. I then just start to focus on the game. Nothing too special.

MAX: What's sort of pre-game music do you listen to?

JACK: A bit of everything, but probably my go-to song at the minute would be Spectrum (Say My Name), by Florence + The Machine.

MAX: How have you found coach (Paul) Liistro?

JACK: Yeah, I really like him as a coach. He's helped me so much with that transition from junior to senior footy. He keeps trusting me each week to get the job done. He's just a all-round good bloke.

Max: What does the future hold for you, Jack? Do you think you might have a good crack at the Geelong Falcons next year? What about GFL?

JACK: I'd love the opportunity to play in a Falcons team. I'll be staying in the CDFNL for a couple more years, but not sure after that. I'll just wait and see what happens. ■

Round 8 wrap up

Round 8 contrasted high scores and bad kicking.

KICKING LIKE A COW WITH A CUP OF TEA

It's that famous saying we say on CDFNL Live when a team kicks badly. Simpson, last weekend was that team costing them a huge upset win against Irrewarra-Beeac. They booted 7.19, while the Bombers kicked 9.13 going down by six points. They missed a handful of crucial shots, directly in front of goal. Charlie Grist kicked three first-half goals setting up the Bombers win.

BIRRE STAMPEDE

In the first seven rounds of the season, Birregurra's combined score is 314 and they've kicked 43 goals. Last weekend, they booted 30 goals against the Western Eagles, with a final score of 30.16 (196). This is the second highest score kicked this season. The Saints had 13 individual goal kickers for the afternoon, with Jack Parker kicking six and Fraser Jennings four.

cracking day in front of the big sticks - booting five goals for the Swans.

OTWAY HAVING A CRACK

Otway Districts were only 12 points down mid-way through the third term last week, against ladder leaders, Alvie. The Swans boasted an average winning margin of 90 points over the Dees in the last six years and had to work hard in their 49-point win. Alvie kicked eight goals to three in the second half to record a 16.8 (104) to 8.7 (55) win. Oscar Barter had another

IMPS JUMP INTO THE FIVE

The Colac Imperials returned to the winners list with a solid home win over Lorne. The Cats started well, leading by 20 points at the first change and withstood a couple of spirited fight backs from the Dolphins, winning 9.11 (65) to 6.10 (46). Noah Allan kicked four goals for the Imps, while Tommy Henderson kicked two for Lorne. ■

IS THE TOP THREE SET?

Last year's top three currently occupy the same spots. Is the top three set? Or do we have some twists still to come, starting this weekend?

> THE GAMES

- > ALVIE (1st) v BIRREGURRA (8th)
- > APOLLO BAY (9th) v COLAC IMPERIALS (5th)
- > IRREWARRA-BEEAC (3rd) v OTWAY DISTRICTS (7th)
- > LORNE (6th) v SIMPSON (4th)
- > WESTERN EAGLES (10th) v SOUTH COLAC (2nd)

> GAME OF THE ROUND

Saturday 4th June

2pm, Stribling Reserve

> LORNE v SIMPSON

What a massive four points up for grabs, this afternoon down at the Pod. Simpson kicked 9.17 last weekend going down to Irrewarra-Beeac by six points. So, you could say they were unlucky to get the four points, however bad kicking is bad football. Lorne, on the other hand, have dropped games to South

Colac and the Colac Imperials over the last two weeks. An away win today for the Tigers would give them a two-game buffer over the Dolphins. However, if Lorne can steel themselves today and win, they will be on even points, heading into the second half of the season. This one should be an absolute beauty.

>GET AROUND HIM! THE PLAYER TO WATCH

Jack Parker (Birregurra)

He kicked a career-high six goals for Birregurra last weekend, in only his second game back at the club. He will be keen to continue his form today in what is building as a big game for the Saints against the ladder leaders, the Swans.

>THE “WORTH OF PRICE OF ADMISSION” MATCH UP

Cam Parker (Irrewarra-Beeac) v Stewart Sutherland (Otway Districts)

The two coaches, warriors and key players to their clubs could face-off today against each other, in what would be a exciting match-up. Both gather a lot of the footy and use it well. It would be great to see them go one-on-one a few times.

>THE “AJ BRADY” STAT

Apollo Bay has won five of their past six meetings against the Colac Imperials. The Imps last defeated the Bay back in Round 11, 2019 by 18 points. Apollo Bay won their only encounter last year.

>I TIPPED THIS!... THE BIG PREDICTION

Otway Districts to be leading at half-time against Irrewarra Beeac and be within a kick at the final change.

>PREDICTIONS

ALVIE by 20 points

COLAC IMPERIALS by 24 points

IRREWARRA-BEEAC by 19 points

LORNE by 2 points

SOUTH COLAC by 85 points

We continue the celebration...

Re-tracing our steps and trips down memory lane.

It was fantastic to see all the clubs who hosted last weekend (Birregurra, Colac Imperials, Otway Districts and South Colac), organise a great celebration for our 50th year of CDFNL netball.

I know a couple of clubs are planning something in the coming weeks, but it was fantastic to see some old team photos up in the club rooms and also on their social media feeds.

Good luck to all the clubs this weekend, hosting events. What a weekend of upsets Round 8 was. It has opened the A Grade netball premiership race wide open.

Lorraine Rodger,
CDFNL Vice-President

Never the swansong

The strength of the Alvie netball club continues fifty years on...

Alvie Football Club was one of the original clubs to enter the Colac & District Football League Netball Association when it formed in 1972. After much organisation from the newly formed netball committee at the time, including Sue Hickey, Joan Parker and others, on Saturday 15th April 1972 teams from Alvie took the court for their first CDFLNA netball match. Since that day Alvie, has been one of the only clubs in the league to field a side in every single year of the competition.

By the end of the 1978 season Alvie had taken home their first senior league best and fairest win by A Grade player Joanne Lynch, with Leanne O'Brien also taking league best and fairest honors for Alvie this year in the Under 16 division.

In the season of 1985, Alvie had three grades entered in the competition - seniors, reserves and under-16's. Led by coach Joan Parker the senior girls were hitting their straps with the likes of Rebecca Finn, Sharon Hickey, Fiona Martin, Valerie Russell and Sue Hickey dominating across the court.

The last three rounds of the Home and Away season were the finals weeks for netball at the time, with all finals played on Sundays at the Eastern Reserve. Players from the time remember larger crowds at these games than they were used to, the Sunday timeslot meaning these were some of the only matches watched by local footballers, and recalling that "all the boys came to watch Bec!" (Rebecca Finn).

By the Sunday of Grand Final Day in 1985, Alvie had fought through consecutive close matches to make it there on the day, and the big dance would be no different, running into overtime before Alvie could finally come away with the win from Colac Imperials. The year was capped off by Fiona Martin taking out senior league best & fairest honors following the Premiership win.

Consecutive senior premierships would follow for the club in 1986, 1987 and 1988. Club great Sharon Hickey won her first Senior Best & Fairest in the Premiership year of 1987 and again in 1989, followed by many more throughout her netball career. Along with Rebecca Finn, their names flooded most best and fairest counts at the time.

Entering the 1990 netball season key players such as Julie Monaghan and Kerry Eldridge had joined the senior ranks and Alvie began another Premiership streak across the years 1990, 1991, 1992, 1993 and 1994.

Alvie's most recent Premiership years have been in 2006 under coach Julie Monaghan and again in 2019, as the A Grade side emerged undefeated, premiers and champions under coach Morgan Eldridge. Key players in the 2019 Premiership team included Georgia Robinson, Chelsea Hillman, Laura Kelly, Lily Eldridge and Dallas Williamson - who is another Alvie great, highly decorated with Best and Fairest wins across her career. ■

WILL WE SEE MORE UPSETS?

Last weekend, we saw a number of upsets which has opened the premiership race right up.

> THE GAMES

- > ALVIE (6th) v BIRREGURRA (8th)
- > APOLLO BAY (5th) v COLAC IMPERIALS (9th)
- > IRREWARRA-BEEAC (2nd) v OTWAY DISTRICTS (4th)
- > LORNE (7th) v SIMPSON (3rd)
- > WESTERN EAGLES (10th) v SOUTH COLAC (1st)

> GAME OF THE ROUND

Saturday 4th June

2.30pm, Warrowie Recreation Reserve

> IRREWARRA-BEEAC v OTWAY DISTRICTS

A huge top-three clash between these two great sides - Irrewarra-Beeac and Otway Districts. The Demons dee-stroyed Alvie last weekend, and showed the competition they are a serious flag threat in 2022. The Bombers, on the otherhand suffered their second loss in three rounds, going down to the Tigers in a hard fought match. If Otway Districts can produce another big upset today, they will be on equal points with Irrewarra-Beeac, heading into the second half of the season. Both sides have quality goal shooters at both ends of the court. This game could potentially be decided in a shootout, but expect one thing - it will be close.

>PLAYER TO WATCH...

Hayley Pouw (Simpson) - Hayley played one ripper of a game last week for Simpson in their huge win against Irrewarra-Beeac. Today her Tigers side heads down the coast for another big test against the Dolphins. She'll be keen to continue her form and help her side over the line.

>THE BIG MATCH-UP...

Grace Garner (Irrewarra-Beeac) v Claire Robertson (Otway Districts). A great battle between GK and GS will be on show today at Warrowie. Both ladies are in great form, with Claire building her form up after a slow start. If Grace can shutdown the Dees goal attackers it will go a long way to helping her side to win today.

>IT'S A BIG WEEKEND FOR...

Birregurra - The Saints have a huge chance to creep up the ladder if they can cause an upset win against the Swans.

>WHO'LL SHOOT THE LIGHTS OUT?...

Maggie Eldridge (South Colac) - After their shock loss last weekend, the Roos will want to bounce back. Maggie will score 30+ this today against the Western Eagles.

>PREDICTIONS

Alvie by 4 goals
Apollo Bay by 9 goals
Otway Districts by 1 goal
Simpson by 6 goals
South Colac by 12 goals
