Five rounds to go...

With only five home and away rounds to go - the finals are coming!
Are you ready?

We were back after the league bye last week, and didn't the weather gods produce a fantastic Saturday afternoon. It was pouring down rain, up the highway in Geelong, but it was sunny skies in Colac and the scores across the board were great.

The ladders are starting to take shape in all grades with top five spots still open for many.

Today, Alvie celebrate their 100 years as a club. This is a fantastic achievement. They are one of league's heartbeat and it's going to be a very enjoyable day for the club and their supporters. Hopefully, the weather is as good as it was last weekend and everyone will have a great weekend.

Peter Hickey,
CDFNL President

"SCOREBOARD!"

Ranking the CDFNL scoreboards around the league. Words MAX BLAKE.

The most important feature of any footy club, is their scoreboard. It's a real showpiece of your club.

Throughout my journey, visiting local footy clubs, I've seen some absolute rippers and some really run down scoreboards. A few clubs are ahead of the game, with big LED screen scoreboards, featuring flashy lights. Others are traditional, preferring the old school style, changing the scores by hand.

What makes a great scoreboard? Well, for starters, if you can see it clearly from the other side of the ground, that ticks a lot of boxes. Easy to read, shows the full score, along with the goals and points is a bonus.

If a club can master the old school manual scoreboard, but add a splash of colour to it, combined with advertisements to help pay the bills - that's a win. I'm a local footy nuffie (but, you already knew that!) and love a good scoreboard.

So, here are my CDFNL scoreboards rankings - 1 to 10. ■

1 LORNE

I like to call it the "Kevin Murphy Scoreboard", because from the moment it was installed, he was bragging about it. It's an absolute ripper, even though it's a LED screen. It's BIG, easily read and with the addition of club logos. There's space for other scores at the top, and you could probably see it from the moon! The old Dolphins scoreboard was also pretty good. We occupy it now for our broadcast games.

3 WESTERN EAGLES

The Eagles' scoreboard is like pizza - sometimes less is best. It still has a very old school look to it. Wooden style, which gives it charm, easy to read with no bright colours. It requires the locals at the ground to do a bit a arithmetic in their heads, to add up the total score.

2 OTWAY DISTRICTS

The Demons' footy scoreboard is old school, manual-style. Goals, behinds and points are indicated by G, B and P. The full score is displayed (which is a bit of a gamble, but they get it right!). It's a good balance of sponsors and scores, but when you look at it, it has an nice Otway feel to it. It also indicates the length of the quarters.

4 APOLLO BAY

The Bay's new LED scoreboard is great. The height is perfect, full score - goals, behinds, points and a time clock. It's not as bright as Lorne's, but it's still a winner and a massive upgrade from their old one, which sits beside it.

6 IRREWARRA-BEEAC

I respect the Bombers' stance on not upgrading this unique and very basic scoreboard. Normally, a glass background doesn't work, but because the whole thing is glass, it does. The positioning isn't great, but again, less is sometimes better and in this case it works.

8 ALVIE

The Swans were one of the first clubs from memory to ditch the old school scoreboard for the new electronic style. But now it seems a little outdated compared to the newer ones. Still it holds up, the red background suits the club colours. It's small, but and you can see it across the ground.

5 SOUTH COLAC

The Kangaroos' colour scheme is great and suits their club colours. You look at it and you instantly think of South Colac. The separation of the score to the background makes it easy to read, and again, challenges the locals to add up the score themselves. It could do with a time clock, though.

7 COLAC IMPERIALS

Too much happening on the Cats' scoreboard. Extra love for sponsors, but only about five per cent is given to the all important scores. It's pretty old and it maybe heritage listed, but it's time for an upgrade to match in with those awesome modern lights.

9 BIRREGURRA

The Saints' scoreboard is okay, it gives you what you need, if you can read it. It's a little too small to see across the ground, but it's a massive upgrade from their old manual one.

10 SIMPSON

My eyesight gets seriously put to the test when heading out to Simpson. What doesn't help is the Tigers' oval is so big, that the distance from the wing to the grandstand side is larger than normal. But when the sun is shining on this scoreboard, it's virtually impossible to read. Sorry Tigers.

Alvie superstar,
ANDRE DELORENZO

DELORENZO

You Beauty!

Alvie celebrate their 100th year as a club, this weekend and we spoke to one of their current superstars, Andre Delorenzo during the week.

Words - MAX BLAKE.

MAX BLAKE: Thanks for chatting to us today, Andre. The Swans are sitting on top the ladder and things are looking good. How have you rated the season so far?

ANDRE DELORENZO: It's been great to have an uninterrupted season so far. We're very happy with the way we have started the season, still plenty to work on with some sides exposing areas we need to make adjustments in.

MAX: I know you'll want to keep a lid on it, but is this the best chance at winning a flag in your time at the club?

ANDRE: Certainly, the first few years of seniors I thought we were a genuine contender, but Irrewarra-Beeac, Lorne and Birre were just a class above at the time. Since then, the last couple of years our depth has improved and we are playing patches of great footy.

MAX: Who have been some of the players at the club that have impressed you this season?

ANDRE: Matt Kelly and Lincoln's consistency has been a huge asset, alongside Levi and Ben Lynch. But, I think the way Danny Allan has fitted back in has been a big key, with some of our outs from last season.

MAX: Both yourself and Lochie Rosevear are the generals down back. You guys seem to have a really good relationship on field together?

ANDRE: I was able to learn a lot from Luke McCarthy in the early part of my career. The way Rosie had grown as a player and a leader has been a pleasure to watch. Getting to know him off the field keeps me a bit younger, too.

MAX: You've had a number of good coaches during your career at Alvie. How have you found Joe and what has he brought to the table differently, to others in the past?

ANDRE: I've been very lucky over my time to have experienced so many quality coaches. It's been great over the past years to have Joe impart his experience and shared leadership with this group. I've enjoyed his even approach with all our senior group, valuing each individual.

MAX: Do you have any desire to coach senior footy one day?

ANDRE: It's not something I've considered, but would be open to support where I can.

"I've been very lucky over my time to have experienced so many quality coaches..." - ANDRE DELORENZO

Alvie superstar,
ANDRE DELORENZO

MAX: It's a big weekend for your club, celebrating their 100 years. What makes Alvie such a great club?

ANDRE: I think Alvie has a great mix of loyal families, with so many willing to put in the work behind the scenes, along with season to season getting some great new additions to the club which always creates excitement, both on the football and netball side of the club.

MAX: Which old legends produce the best stories from their past playing days?

ANDRE: Hard to split between Murray Williamson, Dale Hynes or Barry Parker and 'Blonde Parker'. All four are very willing to explain to me that they never had hamstrings back in their day, along with plenty of game-day pointers!

MAX: Here is a big question! Who's been your toughest opponents in the league?

ANDRE: Hard to go past the ex-teammates - Christian and Coxy. Both have been very hard to get on top of. Recently, Damien Zaperenkov has also been challenging, with strength and pace. In the early part of my career, Irrewarra-Beeac had diverse forwards like Elborough, Casey and Vickers which tested me early.

MAX: Has there been any standout games you've played that spring to mind? Maybe a final, or an epic home and away match, or even just a good win?

ANDRE: Thankfully, many! Early on, I remember some tight

"I think we're tracking nicely, but the comp. is well positioned for a very tight finish..."

- ANDRE DELORENZO

wins over Lorne and Forrest - when they were powerhouses of the comp. Honestly, the win in Round 1, against Irrewarra-Beeac last year was special, more so as it was the first game having 'Sealy' and 'Pup' back after playing all my junior footy with them.

MAX: We're about to enter the most exciting time of the season - finals. You've played in plenty. Do you still get pretty excited?

What do guys need to do, to bring home the ultimate prize?

ANDRE: Absolutely, it's a huge reward for months of work and playing at Central always brings an air of excitement.

I think we're tracking nicely, but the comp. is well positioned for a very tight finish and I think we just need to work on stealing ourselves when games get tight, and systematically working our way back from deficits. ■

Round 13 wrap up

The Dees and the Saints battled out a draw, the Swans in one-point thriller and the Hawks claimed the Coastal Cup.

SEASON'S SECOND DRAW

Otway Districts and Birregurra produced the second drawn game for season 2022 in senior football. After a three goal to two opening term, which saw the Dees hold an eight point lead. From there, it was only a two-goal to three game, with the two combatants' score locked - 5.7 (37) to 6.1 (37) at the final siren. When the two sides met earlier in the season, it was Otway Districts winning in another low scoring match 4.5 (29) to 3.8 (26).

HAWKS WIN THE COASTAL CUP!

In a huge upset, Apollo Bay defeated Lorne to win the Coastal Cup and climb up the ladder. It's been a tough and challenging year for the Hawks, but they've now made it tough for their coastal rivals to make the finals, after upsetting the Dolphins 13.8 (86) to 9.15 (69). Damian Zapernkov kicked four goals for Apollo Bay, while Tommy Henderson kicked four for Lorne.

SWANS IN A THRILLER

Alvie, down for most of the second quarter and looking like the Colac Imperials were just too fast, the top-of-the-ladder Swans found a way to victory. Down by 15 points at the final change, Alvie booted three goals to zip, to sneak over the line with a thrilling one-point win. Dom Dare kicked four goals, three in the second-half which allowed the Swans back into the contest. Final scores were Alvie 9.8 (62) defeating Colac Imperials 8.13 (61).

SOUTH COLAC AND BLACK ON FIRE

Josh Black kicked five goals as South Colac produced a big win against fellow finals' aspirant, Simpson. The Roos are building nicely towards the pointy end of the season and put together a 14.9 (93) to 7.2 (44) win over the Tigers. ■

EAST HOTEL, COLAC PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Alvie's Lachy Mulder took out the Round 13 East Hotel, Colac Player of the Week. He produced some great moments across the ground for the Swans in their one point win over the Colac Imperials.

WHO WILL BREAK THEIR DROUGHT?

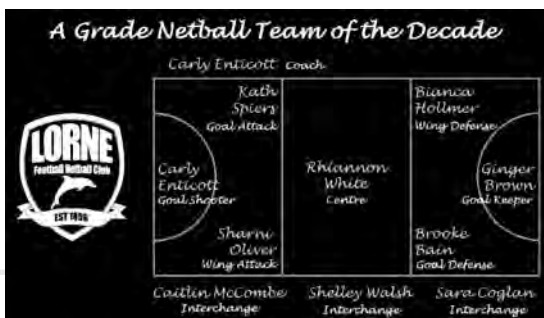

During the week, we posted up when your team last won a senior football flag, with the current top 5 sides all having long droughts, minus Simpson. So, finally in 2022, a drought will be broken.

But which team will it be?

LORNE'S TEAMS OF THE DECADE

Lorne last weekend announced their football and netball Team of the Decade. Well done to all players selected. The senior football team won a host of premierships during the past decade, while their A Grade side won their first ever premiership. ■

THE COUNTDOWN TO THE FINALS BEGINS

Today, we enter the last third of the season. Top 5 spots are on the line.

> THE GAMES

- > ALVIE (1st) v APOLLO BAY (8th)
- > BIRREGURRA (9th) v IRREWARRA-BEEAC (3rd)
- > COLAC IMPERIALS (4th) v SIMPSON (5th)
- > SOUTH COLAC (2nd) v OTWAY DISTRICTS (7th)
- > WESTERN EAGLES (10th) v LORNE (6th)

> GAME OF THE ROUND

Saturday 16th July

2pm, Western Oval

- > COLAC IMPERIALS v SIMPSON

Both the Colac Imperials and Simpson suffered defeats last weekend. But with Lorne's shock loss to Apollo Bay, both clubs remain two wins inside the top five. A win today for either side could secure a top 5 spot, barring some bizarre circumstances.

It was a thriller earlier in the season in Round 5, with the Tigers getting up at home with Nick 'Big Whopper' Harding booting seven. If the Imps can stop him, it will go a long way to securing the points for the Cats. Both sides are fast on the outside and love the run and carry game. If the weather conditions stay nice, we could be in for a shoot out today at the Western Oval.

>GET AROUND HIM! THE PLAYER TO WATCH

Liam Cunningham (Colac Imperials)

Richie's boy has had a ripper of a season to date and last week, he was a key player in the Cats pushing the top of the table, Swans to within one point of victory. He loves taking the game on and uses the ball well. He'll be keen to continue his form today.

>THE "WORTH THE PRICE OF ADMISSION" MATCH UP

Mick Embrey (South Colac) v Stewart Sutherland (Otway Districts)

Unlikely they'll start on each other, but no doubt everyone going to Elliminyt today would love to see these two go head-to-head at some point in today's match. Both are hard as a cats heads and would produce a solid highlights reel to the game if they locked horns. Make it happen coaches!

>THE "AJ BRADY" STAT

Apollo Bay last defeated Alvie back in the 2019 Elimination Final at Central Reserve. On that day the 'Bay scored a massive 20.14 (134), which was in fact was the highest score a side had kicked in a final in the last decade.

>I TIPPED THIS!... THE BIG PREDICTION

A Paul Salmon v Gary Ablett Snr style shoot out from 1993, to happen today at Red Rock, between Alvie's Dom Dare and Apollo Bay's Damian Zaperkenkov. They'll kick 16 between them!

>PREDICTIONS

After a mid-season bye, it was was great to be back

The business end of the season starts now.

Well done to all clubs last weekend in our return back from our mid-season bye. Everything went smoothly and we are now looking towards the remaining five weeks of the season.

The A Grade season really is becoming interesting, with Alvie scoring another big win last week and building towards the end of the season in great form. Meanwhile, Irrewarra-Beeac and South Colac are still sitting in the top two; those sides face-off against each other next weekend.

The battle for the last spot in the top five is heating up - with last year's surprise packets, Apollo Bay sitting only by percentage out of the top five. However, they have a huge game today against Alvie. It's going to be a great final few weeks of the season. Have a great weekend.

Lorraine Rodger,
CDFNL Vice-President

> GAME OF THE ROUND

Saturday 16th July
2pm, Alvie Recreation Reserve

> ALVIE v APOLLO BAY

It's a huge match between Alvie and Apollo Bay at Red Rock today. The Swans are flying after an up and down start to the season. They are back in their premiership-winning form and are currently just one win off top spot. The 'Bay returned to the winners list last weekend against coastal rival, Lorne. The Hawks now sit percentage out of the top 5. If they want to play finals this season, they'll need to cause a big upset against a side sitting currently in the top 5.

Could today be their day, and in process spoil the Swans' 100-year celebration?

>THE PLAYER TO WATCH...

Brooke Hawkins (Otway Districts)

Brooke played a fantastic game for the Demons last week in their comfortable win against the Saints and today, she'll be keen to produce the same form against the Roos. Otway Districts face a tough task, in trying to cause an upset over South Colac at Elliminyt, who sit second on the ladder.

>THE BIG MATCH-UP...

Megan Kerr (Colac Imperials) v Jessie Hawkins (Simpson)

A big battle in attack on court for Simpson today at the Western Oval. The Cats' Megan has had some big jobs this season, but none bigger than today, when she faces in-form Tiger, Jessie in attack.

>IT'S A BIG WEEKEND FOR...

Lorne - The Dolphins need a win to keep their slim finals chances alive.

They face the Western Eagles, which on paper looks a likely victory, but the Eagles have improved this season and won't be a pushover at Irrewillipe.

>WHO'LL SHOOT THE LIGHTS OUT...

Monique Adams (Apollo Bay)

If Monique plays this week, expect her to have a big day in the clash between Alvie and Apollo Bay. If she can score 35+ goals, it will go a long way to help her side cause a huge upset.

>PREDICTIONS

ALVIE by 9 goals

IRREWARRA-BEEAC by 12 goals

SIMPSON by 12 goals

SOUTH COLAC by 6 goals

LORNE by 11 goals
