A word from CDFNL Chairman
PETER HICKEY

The sun shone brightly....

A second weekend of perfect weather ensured the supporters attendance.

It was another massive weekend of community sport finals at Central Reserve... and didn't the people turn up!?

We had incredible weather, which got the locals out of their house and into the ground. The car park was full, nearby streets packed with cars and the early smell of spring was great.

Well done to the clubs that managed the canteen duties last weekend and good luck to the clubs doing them today.

Hopefully, we have another couple of great days left in this season.

Good luck to the all the sides remaining in the hunt for this year's premiership.

Peter Hickey,
CDFNL Chairman

The Best games of 2022 ...so far.

Granted, I have don't have access to every single game that's played this season, but across 18 rounds of broadcasting the league we've witnessed some epic battles in 2022. So, here's my top five games we've broadcasted on CDNL Live this season. Words MAX BLAKE.

1 ROUND 3 – EASTER SATURDAY

Alvie 14.14 (98) d. Lorne 14.11 (95)

This game was an absolute classic! There was pre-game drama, heaps of insane goals, spot fires and a close finish - all played in front of a massive crowd, on the warmest day of the day.

Alvie were hit hard by the Covid-19 wave and there were rumours that they might've pulled out of this clash. However, to their credit they fielded a team and produced a win for the ages.

Cullan Spence was a star up forward for the Swans, while former AFL star, Jack Steven kicked some pretty handy goals for the Dolphins.

2 2ND SEMI-FINAL

South Colac 10.9 (69) d. Alvie 9.13 (67)

This game is fresh in the mind, as it was played last Saturday, but this was one of the great finals.

It was an attacking game early, then crept into a hard contested slog. There were spot fires and one incredible mark taken by Matt Kelly followed by a grandstand finish, which saw the Roos outlast the Swans earning a spot into the Grand Final.

3 ROUND 15

Irre-Beeac 5.6 (36) d. South Colac 4.6 (30)

This game was a good old fashion, hard-fought, country footy slog. If we'd kept count, there would have been more smotherers than marks and more tackles than disposals. All afternoon these two teams didn't stop bashing into each other trying to win the footy. The final scoreline doesn't do justice just how good of a game this was.

4 ROUND 17

Colac Imperials 13.10 (88) d. Lorne 11.11 (77)

This game was a ripper of an encounter, one that had a riding on the result. The Imps were aiming to lock their spot in the five, while Lorne were aiming to jump into the top five.

The two sides traded leads all afternoon, with each looking like they had taken control of the match, only for the other to come back.

In the end, Sam Lucas booted three final-term goals and that was the difference.

5 ROUND 6

Apollo Bay 11.8 (74) d. Western Eagles 10.8 (68)

Both the Hawks and Eagles were aiming for their first wins of the season and didn't they produced a beauty! The Eagles got the jump on the 'Bay and kept them at arms length for most of the afternoon.

However, big Damian Zaperenkov dominated up forward kicking a handful of clutch goals in the second half to give the Hawks a thrilling win.

Irrewarra-Beeac star goal shooter,
COURTNEY GARNER

Shooting goals!

We spoke to Irrewarra-Beeac star goal shooter, Courtney Garner before this weekend's preliminary final. Words - MAX BLAKE.

MAX BLAKE: Thanks for chatting to us today Courtney. It's been a big season at Bomberland. The girls are into a Preliminary final. How have you rated your season so far?

COURTNEY GARNER: Thanks for having me Max!

We're very excited to be here in the Prelim. I think the results of the finals series so far, show just how close the A Grade competition is this year. There hasn't been any easy games!

We're a very tight knit group, and I honestly feel so lucky I get to spend my Saturdays with these girls. We've worked really hard over the past few years to get to where we are now and we just hope we have what it takes to go all the way this season!

MAX: How have you rated your season personally?

COURTNEY: Personally, it's been a bit disappointing. Not having been able to consistently bring both elements of my game together has been frustrating. My accuracy has been a challenge, but I'm very lucky to be in a team of supportive and empowering women who back each other in every week.

Being a goaler can be tough mentally, so when you feel the support from your teammates it makes a difference, for sure.

MAX: Tell us about the art of being a goal shooter in netball? How much practice do you do? How long did it take you to get to your current shooting routine?

COURTNEY: To be honest, I've probably practiced more this season than ever before. But I've possibly had my most inaccurate season, yet so I'm not sure if I should be throwing around tips on that!

I've never really had any set routine, but I always make sure I get to training at least half an hour early to put some shots up and if I've got a spare hour here or there throughout the week, I'll get out and practice.

MAX: Who's been your toughest opponent in your career?

COURTNEY: I'd have to say Edwina Parker. She's just a really clean defender, who reads the play beautifully and makes her goalies work hard for every delivery. Her vertical leap is also very impressive!

MAX: What's one of your all time favourite games you've played in or been apart of?

COURTNEY: Hopefully, my response to this question might be different in a couple of weeks time! But, taking the court with Rach Rodger for her 300th

“The place is home and the people are family.”

- COURTNEY GARNER

A Grade game was pretty special for me. Rach played in the first ever Irrewarra-Beeac A Grade netball premiership in 1997 with my mum. I was a one-year-old then and she's somebody who I look up to, both on and off the netball court. It was a real honour and a privilege to celebrate that amazing achievement with her.

MAX: Preliminary final this weekend! How are the nerves? What's the focus for this match?

COURTNEY: My nerves aren't good at the best of times, so this weekend will be no exception! But, we're definitely just really eager to have another crack at South. They're a quality side who've proven to be our biggest challenge this season, having beaten us in three very close and contested games of netball.

MAX: What makes Irrewarra-Beeac such a great club?

COURTNEY: The place is home and the people are family. It's as simple as that! I'm not sure I'll actually ever be able to articulate just how much the club means to me, but it's a pretty special place to be. ■

Seven days in football

South Colac advanced to the grand final, while Irrewarra-Beeac ended the Colac Imperials' finals dream.

SOUTH WIN IN AN EPIC

South Colac won its first, second semi-final since 2011 with a thrilling two-point win over Alvie.

This final had everything! A high scoring first half with some great goals and big marks. The second half saw spot fires everywhere.

A huge hanger on the wing from Matt Kelly and a grind to the finish. In the end, the Kangaroos made the most of their opportunities in front of goal. The Swans however, missed a few easy ones in the final moments, opening the door for the Roos to record a 10.9 (69) to 9.13 (67) win.

Ben Cox, Nick Lynch and Jordan Foley all kicked two goals. Sam Giblett, Brendan Monaghan and Mitch Perkins were named in South Colac's best players.

Harry Carmody and Cullan Spence kicked three goals each for the Swans, while Matt Kelly, Lincoln Dare and Levi Dare were named best on ground.

'WARRA BURST IMP'S' BUBBLE

Irrewarra-Beeac stormed back onto the winner's list and kept their premiership quest alive, while ending the Colac Imperials season. The Bombers recorded a huge 51-point victory in the first semi-final.

After a low scoring first term, the Bombers booted five goals to none in the second term, holding onto a huge 40-point lead at half-time.

The Imps put the Bombers under pressure in the third, but it wasn't enough as Irrewarra-Beeac recorded a 10.18 (78) to 3.9 (27) win and advanced to the preliminary final.

Mitchell McGlade and Tom Jackson kicked two goals each for the winners, with Tom Ennor, Mitch Thornton and Tom Jackson named in their best players.

Dwayne Henke, Campbell Scott and Luke Garner kicked the Imps' goals, with Thomas Cahill, Jack Skinner and Steven Cass named in their best players.

// 2015 Preliminary Final - SOUTH COLAC v IRREWARRA-BEEAC

Huge upset in the prelim final

Having lost just the one game during the home and away season, South Colac were raging favourites for the premiership coming into the 2015 finals series.

South Colac entered the 2015 finals series with just the one defeat of the season. They lost the second semi-final to Simpson by four goals and came into their preliminary final overwhelming favourites against Irrewarra-Beeac, who entered the game via all the elimination final stages.

The Roos started strongly, taking a 10-point lead at the first change and looked in total control. But, scores were locked at half-time and again at three-quarter-time. It took some Khan Beckett brilliance, as the Bombers produced one of their best final terms since their 2010 flag. Irrewarra-Beeac kicked six goals to three, winning 11.13 (79) to 9.9 (63) and booking themselves a spot in the 2015 Grand Final against Simpson. ■

>KEY MATCH-UPS

Levi Dare (Alvie) v
Jaden Angus (Irrewarra-Beeac)

Two absolute work horses for their sides, these two are so vital to their teams. This will be a great match-up with 'Bluey' Angus aiming to make his seventh senior Grand Final, while Levi is aiming to advance Alvie into their first Grand Final in sometime. It's a big battle in the middle of Central Reserve today.

Matt Kelly (Alvie) v
Tyler Flanigan (Irrewarra-Beeac)

Matt is still on his way down from his absolute hanger on the wing last weekend. This match-up will be epic to watch with both players in great form. Both players love going in hard for the footy and get lots of it!

CDFNL NETBALL
 YEARS
 1972-2022

A word from CDFNL Vice-President
LORRAINE RODGER

There's nothing in it!

The road to the grand final has been closer than anyone could ever imagined.

In the four A Grade finals played so far in 2022, the combined total margin of these games has been just six points. How amazing is that?

Congratulations to Alvie on winning their way through to consecutive Grand Finals. The Swans' second half of the season has been superb and they will start warm favourites with the chance to defend their title.

Good luck to the girls competing in today's preliminary finals. Hopefully, we get another day of great results.

Lorraine Rodger,
 CDFNL Vice-President

Seven days in netball

Alvie's quest for back-to-back titles continues, Irrewarra-Beeac remain alive after securing a narrow victory over a gallant Simpson.

SWANS INTO ANOTHER GF

Alvie's quest for back-to-back premierships continued after their thrilling one-goal victory over South Colac, booking their place in this year's Grand Final.

Scores were level at 31 a piece at the final change, but a nine goal to eight final term saw the Swans record a 40 to 39 win over the Roos.

Jaymie Lowe top scored for the winners with 21 goals, with Georgia Robinson, Laura Kelly and Chelsea Hillman named best on court.

Maggie-Mae Eldridge top scored for the Roos with 24 to be named in the best, alongside Kaitlyn Hammond and Brittany Monaghan.

BOMBERS... JUST OVER A GALLANT TIGERS

It was another thrilling A Grade clash between the Irrewarra-Beeac and Simpson. Both teams traded leads all match, just like the previous day. Scores were again level at the final change, with the Bombers scoring 11 goals to nine in the final term eliminating the Tigers 38 to 36.

Courtney Garner top scored for the winners with 16 goals, with Grace Garner, Rachel Rodger and Jeremi Robinson named best on court.

Jessie Hawkins scored 22 goals for the Tigers to be named in the best, alongside Hayley Coulson and Kelly Thompson.
